6. Research finding

This part consists of the research findings, including description of the collected data, analysis of the data, and interpretation of the data using the relevant theory.

7. Referencing system

Analisa uses the British Standard Harvard Style for referencing system.

a. Citations (In-text)

Analisa uses in note system (in-text citation) referring to the British Standard Harvard Style referencing system; format (last name of the author/s, year of publication: page number).

- Citing someone else’s ideas.
  Example:
  Culture is not only associated with the description of certain label of the people or community, certain behaviour and definite characteristics of the people but also it includes norm and tradition (Afruch and Black, 2001: 7)

Afruch and Black (2001) explain that culture is not only associated with the description of certain label of the people or community, certain behaviour and definite characteristics of the people but also it includes norm and tradition.

- Citations; quotation from a book, or journal article
  Quotations are the actual words of an author and should be in speech marks. You should include a page number.
  Example:
  Tibi (2012: 15) argues that “Islamism is not about violence but as the order of the world.”
  It has been suggested that “Islamism is not about violence but as the order of the world” (Tibi, 2012: 15)

- Citations - Paraphrasing a book or journal article
  Paraphrasing is when we use someone else ideas/works and write them in our own words. This can be done two ways, either is correct.
  Example:
  Batley (2013) argues that some of the detainees in the bombing cases were members of JI.
  It has been suggested that some of the detainees in the bombing cases were members of JI (Batley, 2013).

- Citing a source within a source (secondary citation)
  Citing the source within a source, it should be mentioned both sources in the text. But, in the reference list, you should only mention the source you actually read.
  Example:
  Tibi (2012, cited in Benneth, 2014: 15) argues that Islamism is not about violence but as the order of the world.
  It has been suggested that Islamism is not about violence but as the order of the world (Tibi, 2012 as cited in Benneth, 2014: 15).

- Citing several authors who have made similar points in different texts
In text citations with more than one source, use a semi colon to separate the authors.

Example:

- Citations - Government bodies or organizations
If you reference an organization or government body such as WHO, the Departments for Education or Health, the first time you mention the organization give their name in full with the abbreviation in brackets, from then on you can abbreviate the name.

Example :
The World Health Organization (WHO) (1999) suggests that.....
WHO (1999) explains that ......

- Citing from the internet
If you cite from a source from the internet (website), write last name of the writer, year of the uploaded/released: page numbers. If there is no author in that page, write the name of the body who release the article in that website, year of release.

Please do not mention the address of the url in the in-text citation.

Example:
Syrian uprising has been prolonged for almost six years and has caused thousands people death as well as millions people has forced to flee from their homeland to seek safety (Aljazeera, 2016).

Religion is an important aspect for the life of many people in the recent era. The believe system of religion plays as a guidance for some people (David, 2015: 12-13)
